

'A Magical Evening' The Guardian

Roy Hudd's

VERY OWN MUSIC HALL

Join Roy for a sparkling evening of songs and stories from his extraordinary career

'Spellbinding'
Reading Chronicle

'Hudd at his best'
Gloucester Echo

'Roy Hudd is a National Treasure'

Roy Hudd's

VERY OWN MUSIC HALL

ROY HUDD has held audiences enthralled for 65 years.

A raconteur of note, a comedian with perfect timing, and a versatile singer and actor, ROY HUDD offers you an evening of the very best entertainment. An evening spent in the company of ROY HUDD is a life enhancing experience.

His career encompasses television and radio (remember Not So Much of a Programme, More of a Way of Life and The News Huddlines?), musicals, pantomimes and his great passion music hall.

This one-man show (with a pianist) will transport you through time as Roy shares the stories, the jokes, the monologues, sings the songs and bedazzles you with the secrets and scandals of the great stars of the music hall. This whirlwind evening of entertainment ends in the swinging 60s when entertainment took on whole new look.